International Stakeholder Workshop on Blue Biotechnology in Europe

BioBridge attended this meeting in February. Organised as part of the study 'Support of Impact Assessment Work on Blue Biotechnology', carried out for the European Commission, DG Maritime Affairs and Fisheries, this workshop was targeted at a small number of key experts. The report will be produced shortly as part of DG-MARE's strategic study of the area

ERA-MBT

ERA-NET in Marine Biotechnology

The CSA MarineBiotech project <http://www.marinebiotech.eu> project managed by BioBridge was successfully completed at the end of March 2013. The CSA's work has now led to an ERA-NET in Marine Biotechnology. ERA-MBT has kicked off and we aim to bring you news from the project shortly.

Horizon 2020

BG-3-2014 Novel marine derived biomolecules and industrial biomaterials

BG-4-2014: Enhancing the industrial exploitation potential of marine-derived enzymes

Thank you to those of you for your response to us. We've aimed to put you in touch with each other and or circulated your details to interested parties. There should still be a possibility to join a consortium for forthcoming calls which includes both H2020 and the ERA-NET in marine biotech.

We're now directing people to the Linked in group as this seems to be very effective in putting interested parties together. The most active LinkedIn group is the Horizon 2020: Blue Growth one. If you're not already in this, we recommend it.
